Brigadier General Edward H. Porter
Deputy Director for Intelligence, Joint Staff
Room 2E-966, The Pentagon
Washington 25, D.C.

Attention: Col. Samuel M. Lansing,
Executive Officer

Dear General Porter:

In response to my request in a letter of 7 April 1954, Colonel Orin H. Moore, USAF, Chairman of the Technical Intelligence Subcommittee, conducted a seminar on military technical intelligence with the students attending the Agency's Intermediate Intelligence Course (Scientific) on 22 April. Colonel Moore's presentation was received with great interest and the ensuing question and discussion period proved highly informative.

I wish to express my appreciation and thanks to you for making the lecturer available, and to Colonel Moore for a notable contribution to the course curriculum.

Sincerely yours,

MATTHEW BAIRD
Director of Training
